

Gabriela Lippe-Holst is serving as Acqupart's chairperson of the board and Acqufin's chief executive officer since 2011. Acqupart and Acqufin are two international investment management companies based in Switzerland. She also serves on the board of Diamond Digital AG in Switzerland. Prior to co-founding Acqupart and Acqufin, Gabriela was with Swiss Re Group for more than a decade where she was appointed Managing Director. During her international career she held various executive positions with management and P&L responsibilities in risk as well as legal management in Zurich and New York with geographical responsibilities extending to Latin America.

Gabriela is also a contributing author of a research collection on the economic development and diversification of the Gulf region under the title of "GCC Financial Markets : the world's new money centers".

Gabriela is a Swiss citizen. She holds a master in Law from the University of Neuchâtel and an L.L.M in international business law – summa cum laude - with a published thesis on the Gulf Monetary Union from the University of Zurich. She is admitted to the Swiss bar and is a member of the International Association of Defense Counsel and an alumna of IMD Business School. She is fluent in six languages.

Gabriela is the founding president of the Young Leaders Alumni Foundation in Switzerland and board member elect to the American Swiss Foundation in New York.