

Hervé Lohr is Minister, Deputy Head of the Bilateral Economic Relations and Head of the Americas at the State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO). He is in charge with his team of trade and investment relations between Switzerland and the countries in the Americas. Previously, he held the position of Deputy Permanent Representative of Switzerland to the OECD, Paris (2016-2019).

Prior to that (2009-2015), Hervé worked at the International Economic Law Division at SECO, becoming its Head in 2012. In that capacity, he led free trade negotiations in legal related matters with China, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Indonesia, India, Ukraine and the Central American States.

Before working for SECO, Hervé served as Head European Affairs of the Canton of Zurich (2005-2008), counseling and representing the canton's executive in the negotiations on an air traffic agreement between Switzerland and Germany. Hervé was also the acting Head of the Division International Agreements and Cooperation at the State Secretariat for Migrations (2000-2005), in this capacity he elaborated and led migration dialogue processes with countries of origin and transit of migration, in Sub-Saharan Africa, Near- and Middle East, Asia and the CIS countries. At the beginning of his career (1995-2000), he was a Policy Advisor for Médecins Sans Frontières and conducted various field visits and missions in different capacities in Sub-Saharan Africa, Caucasus, South East Asia and Latin America.

Hervé holds a Law degree from the University of Neuchâtel and an LL.M. degree in International Economic Law from the University of Zurich. In addition to his mother tongue French, he is fluent in English, German and Spanish.